

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair is abusing the monopoly granted to them under law by using the public
airwaves for propaganda which serves the interests
of themselves and
their friends,
rather than the public interest.
Sinclair should obey
the law or lose
their license.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
